

Move Crew: The Sum of Your Parts

When you played a round with the whole team, how many points did you score before time ran out? _____

What was your score with one person removed? _____

What was your score with two people removed? _____

Make up a player that you could add to your whole team that would make your score LOWER, without shutting the team down completely. What would his or her job be? _____

Make up a new extra player that you could add on to a baseball, basketball or football team. What effect would he or she have on the whole team's abilities? _____
