

Move Crew: Volcano Baseball

What's the first thing that starts a volcano on the road to eruption?

What happens just before a volcano erupts?

The Earth's crust, or top layer, is made up of giant plates that float on the hot liquid rock beneath it. Most volcanoes occur in places where the edges of these plates come together. Why do you think that is?
